

Digwyddiadau Hanesol Ar-lein ym Mis Ebrill / Online History Events in April

April 10th 9.30 – 5 p.m. DARGANFOD – DISCOVERY: a celebration of new archaeological research in Wales. Cambrian Archaeology Association Conference Day. The day will consist of a series of short (20 minute) presentations, with speakers available for question and answer sessions afterwards. Booking: The event is free, but online advance registration on Eventbrite is required – <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/darganfoddiscovery-a-celebration-of-new-archaeological-research-in-wales-registration-140307087275> Please register by Thursday 8th April. Any enquiries should be sent to Dr Rhiannon Comeau at cambrians1846@gmail.com.

April 17th 2. 30 p.m. Carmarthenshire Antiquarian Society' new president, Thomas Lloyd, is giving the next talk - on 'Carmarthenshire in Eighteenth and Nineteenth Century English Literature, looking at prose and poetry work celebrating the County and its authors'.

If you wish to view this talk via ZOOM, please mail carmantiquarians@gmail.com by 12th April quoting 'Tom Lloyd 17th April'. and you will be sent a link 2 days prior to the lecture.

April 22nd: 7.30 p.m. The Abbey Cwmhir Heritage Trust is hosting an online talk by Julian Ravest in which he will discuss the drone photogrammetry that he has conducted over Abbey Cwmhir and Home Grange in Radnorshire. To book: <https://abbeycwmhir.org/talk-31-jan-2021/> with a minimum of £1 towards research funds.

You may also be interested to know that a previous talk on Abbey Cwmhir, 'The Archaeology of Abbey Cwmhir: Mapping a Cistercian Grange in a Marcher Landscape' by Dr Jemma Bezant, is now available to view via the Abbey Cwmhir website - <https://abbeycwmhir.org/online-talk-5-dec/>

April 23rd : 7.30pm, when Professor Janet Burton will be talking about 'The Monastic Presence In Medieval Brecknock'. The lecture (the 2021 Sir John Lloyd Lecture) is organised by Brecknock Society and Museum Friends. More information and booking details can be found here - <https://www.brycheiniog.co.uk/en/whats-on>. Any enquiries should be directed to info@brycheiniog.co.uk.

April 28th: 7.30 p.m Dyfed Family History Meeting – members sharing their researched stories. Contact Eric Davies on ericdavies5@tiscali.co.uk for details of access.